Lady (Aurelia) Young

Aurelia Young, the wife of Lord Young of Cookham, has written a book about her father, the sculptor Oscar Nemon, entitled 'Finding Nemon'.

Oscar Nemon was a glamorous figure who led a bohemian and colourful life, having escaped from Croatia to England just before the Second World War. He sculpted many well known figures, including the Queen, Winston Churchill and Sigmund Freud.

Laura Jane and Sebastian Wylder

Laura Jane and Sebastian were commissioned to make a sculpture for Badgemore Park Golf Club as a thank you from CWMT for their support for the last 21 years and as a joint venture with Jon Connell and the Club. This sculpture, entitled 'It's good to talk', is now situated outside the pro shop, and reflects the ethos of the Trust with great sensitivity. Laura Jane's contemporary bronze and stone sculptures range from small table top to large life-size pieces. Laura Jane initially sculpts in clay and Sebastian, an expert in casting, creates the mould. They work from their studio in Oxfordshire.
